

Lena Pripp-Kovac

Chief Sustainability Officer
Inter IKEA Group

“I inspire, enable and challenge the IKEA business to become people and planet positive.”

Lena Pripp-Kovac is the Chief Sustainability Officer at Inter IKEA Group - covering the IKEA product and food range, supply, production and franchising.

In her role, she leads the global IKEA sustainability strategy which includes transforming IKEA into a circular business, becoming climate positive, creating a fair and equal society and enabling healthy and sustainable living.

Lena has more than 20 years' experience of working with sustainability related topics in various businesses, industries and countries. Lena is passionate about making sustainable living inspiring and affordable to the many people.

Specific topics to engage in at COP25: Climate positive (full value chain approach), regenerative and restorative resources and the importance of responsible sourcing and forestry to address climate change, sustainable living.

